Implementation of Teacher Training Policy

- All the faculty members are asked to undergo at least one week Faculty Development Program (FDP) conducted by various institutes of National importance like AICTE, NITs, IITs, NITTTR, Anna university etc.
- Faculty members should visit an industry every year to get exposure in the industry. Upon completion of the Faculty Visit to the Factory they shall share their experiences to their colleagues in the department and try to utilize the network so connected for the betterment of the students.
- Faculty member shall upgrade their teaching skills and or their subject knowledge by undergoing various FDPs.
- Students' feedback has been sought for the teaching learning process and any faculty member scoring less than 75% marks in the feedback will have to undergo an FDP conducted by the NITTTR or by the University for improving their teaching skills.
- Faculty members are encouraged to attend various skill development courses and are motivated to pursue their academic research if not started.
- Faculty members are motivated to publish their books. "Kings Publications" has been initiated to publish books written by faculty members.
