DOOR TO DOOR CLEANLINESS AWARENESS CAMPAIGN

25.09.2024

KADAVARAYANPATTI

Report

Two NSS POs and 20 Volunteers visited households, distributing pamphlets and interacting with residents to promote cleanliness practices. They provided guidance on proper waste segregation, disposal, and recycling. They emphasized the importance of handwashing, toilet usage, and proper sanitation practices. NSS programme officers Mr.G.Dinesh, Unit-I; Mr.S.Ambalatharasu, Unit-II, made all the arrangements.

Outcome:

The "Swachhata Hi Seva" door-to-door cleanliness awareness campaign successfully reached households, resulting in increased awareness about cleanliness and hygiene practices among 80% of households. Overall, the campaign achieved its objective of promoting cleanliness and hygiene practices, contributing to a cleaner and healthier environment.
