Delivered a lot of message about Environmental waste management is crucial not only in maintaining the cleanliness of our surroundings but also keeping the good health of the people. This requires logical and meticulous planning because a lot is at stake – and the effectiveness of this process will benefit everyone as well.

There are a lot of waste management and recycling companies who give a lot of effort into achieving this. We, Green Mountains, are doing the same – in fact, we are the leading providers of liquid and solid waste treatment and disposal, as well as chemical waste disposal services. We take pride in being one of the best when it comes to collecting, transporting, treating, and disposing of any kind of waste materials. We have been in the industry long enough to know the right and effective procedures to execute in these endeavors.

There are actually different types of waste – namely human and animal feces, solid wastes, domestic wastewater, industrial wastes, and agricultural wastes. And waste management is the strategy to prevent, monitor, handle, and treat these wastes of this world. Finally the Vote of thanks given by Mr. S. Ambalatharasu, Unit II.

One of the biggest concerns for our water-based resources in the future is the sustainability of the current and future water resource allocation. Water is an essential resource for all life on the planet of the water resources on Earth, only 2.5 percent of it is fresh. Two-thirds of the freshwater is locked up in ice caps and glaciers. Of the remaining one percent, a fifth is in remote, inaccessible areas and much seasonal rainfall in monsoonal deluges and floods cannot easily be used.

Agriculture practices in this region have been identified as a major contributor to nutrient loading of receiving waters; Studies indicate that a person needs a minimum of 20 to 40 liters of water per day for drinking and sanitation. More than one billion people worldwide have no access to clean water. Finally Vote of thanks delivered by Mr. S. Ambalatharasu, Unit II.

"PLASTIC BAN AWARENESS PROGRAMME"*Date & Time: 01.02.2019, 11.00 a.m.Venue: Kings CampusReport

A one day Plastic Ban Awareness Programme was organized by the National Service Scheme in our college on 01.02.2019. The programme officers Mr. P. Rajeshwaran, Unit I, and Mr. S. Ambalatharasu, Unit II, had made all the arrangements for the programme.

The Programme was formally inaugurated by our Secretary, Dr. R. Rajendran, and Dr. J. Arputha Vijayaselvi, Principal of Kings College of Engineering. The programme witnessed the enthusiastic participation of 45 NSS volunteers and A power point presentation was presented by NSS PO to NSS volunteers in order to gain knowledge about plastics usage of boon and ban.

Every product has a shelf life, but sadly that is not the case with plastics. The fact is that our planet cannot digest plastic. Plastics take around 500 to 1000 years to completely degrade due to the presence of complex polymers. As a result, till now whatever bit of plastic has ever been manufactured or used by us can be found in some form or the other on the planet.

Tamil Nadu has announced its intention to ban the manufacture, sale, storage, and use of disposable plastic from January 1, 2019. The ban primarily covers the use of plastic carry bags, plastic plates, plastic cups, plastic flags, small plastic sachets used in packaging water, among others. Exclusions, however, apply for milk, curd, oil, and medicine packaging.

The awareness programme was really conducive to keep the environment clean and avoid using the plastics; our NSS volunteers stuck inside the campus the slogans of plastics ban usage, more than 700 pupils were benefited through the programme. The programme also disseminated a note of awareness to the volunteers who has undiminished concern for the society.

"PLASTIC BAN AWARENESS PROGRAMME"

Date & Time: 01.02.2019, 11.00 a.m.

Venue: Kings Campus

Report

A one day Plastic Ban Awareness Programme was organized by the Citizen Consumer Club in our college on 01.02.2019. The programme officer Dr.G.Ramya Arockiamary had made all the arrangements for the programme.

The Programme was formally inaugurated by our Secretary, Dr. R. Rajendran, and Dr. J. Arputha Vijayaselvi, Principal of Kings College of Engineering. The programme witnessed the enthusiastic participation of 40 CCC volunteers and A power point presentation was presented to CCC volunteers in order to gain knowledge about plastic usage of boon and ban.

Every product has a shelf life, but sadly that is not the case with plastics. The fact is that our planet cannot digest plastic. Plastics take around 500 to 1000 years to completely degrade due to the presence of complex polymers. As a result, till now whatever bit of plastic has ever been manufactured or used by us can be found in some form or the other on the planet.

Tamil Nadu has announced its intention to ban the manufacture, sale, storage, and use of disposable plastic from January 1, 2019. The ban primarily covers the use of plastic carry bags, plastic plates, plastic cups, plastic flags, small plastic sachets used in packaging water, among others. Exclusions, however, apply for milk, curd, oil, and medicine packaging.

The awareness programme was really conducive to keep the environment clean and avoid using the plastics; our CCC volunteers stuck inside the campus the slogans of plastics ban usage, more than 700 pupils were benefited through the programme. The programme also disseminated a note of awareness to the volunteers who has undiminished concern for the society.

REPORT ON ELECTRICAL SAFETY

"A woman with a voice is, by definition, a strong woman." —Melinda Gates

In K.C.E, has organized a awareness program for women (students and staff) on 23.02.17 at 3.30 to 4.30 pm. our main objective is awareness for electrical safety.

This lively program at KCE, featured a variety of slides, including video clips, etc.

All the female students of KCE have participated . This programme started with an unique and enthusiastic by 3.30 pm. Mrs. Thirumagal, AP /ECE gave welcome address and invited the respected chief guest Mr.T.Kannan ,Advior/EEE. He shared valuable information on awareness program for women under the title of "ELECTRICAL SAFETY " .It was very useful to the students.

chief guest Mr.T.Kannan ,Advior/EEE. delivering speech on "Electrical Safety"

he says,

We may think we know all there is to know about the dangers of electrical mishaps, but there are still electrical safety rules to be strictly observed.

Here are some tips to help you maintain proper caution, to help keep you and your family safe around the house, and to avoid electrical fires and accidents:

1 Make it a habit to turn off electric games and appliances when they're not in use. Before going to bed, make it a routine to check that all electrical devices not in use are properly shut off.

2 Never ever overload sockets. It's a safe bet to always use just one plug in every socket. Even if you are using the adapter make sure it's the bar type that also has a fuse. The total output of all plugs in the adapter should be no more than the specified rating.

3 Adding a residual current device is an easy way to cut off power and prevent shocks. Another sensible option is to fix one on the fuse box. Alternately, you can choose a portable one, which are ideal for outdoor jobs such as using the lawnmower or vacuum cleaner.

4 It's a good idea to periodically keep an eye on the condition of the plugs and sockets. You should pay attention to any burnt or frayed wires on appliances. It's best to get the services of a professional electrician to fix such problems.

5 Never allow wires or leads to run under carpets where they remain invisible. Besides being a tripping hazard it's hard to see the state of the cables or wires.

6 Never ever allow electric wires or cables to trail over kitchen appliances like toasters or stove tops. These are very dangerous and are hazards of the worst kind. Also, never finger the toaster with anything, especially with any metal.

7 Do not stick in nails or try to make holes in the walls of your home. It's a potential danger since you may not know what's behind your point of entry. And you should also take care when digging or excavating as you run the risk of cutting live underground wire.

8 Avoid mixing liquids and electricity. They should be kept as far apart as possible. Touch your appliances with dry hands only. Avoid placing water or other liquids on top of electrical appliances. Many of us use the TV top or microwave as a counter but that's actually very dangerous if liquids spill into open slots and cause a short circuit. And while using a steam kettle, do not fill it up while it's still plugged on.

9 It's best to avoid taking major electrical appliances into a bathroom. Always check for the wire coding on appliances like hair dryers, hair straighteners or radios that are often used in bathrooms.

10 Make sure that your children do not walk in wet into the house directly from the rain or your swimming pool. Your home is a place that is full of electrical sources and could pose a threat to their safety. Get them to dry out completely before entering the house.

Vote of thanks was given by the women's cell convener Mrs. P. Thirumagal AP/ECE.

Thus the awareness program ended successfully.

REPORT ON WOMEN'S DAY PROGRAM

"A woman with a voice is, by definition, a strong woman." —Melinda Gates

In K.C.E, has organized a Women's day program for women (students and staff) on 8th March at 3.30 to 5.30 pm. our main objective is to create empowered women. This lively program at KCE, featured a variety of events, including video clips, competitions, honouring women, etc.

All the female students of KCE have participated . This programme started with an unique and enthusiastic WOMEN ANTHEM by 3.30 pm. An AV(audio and video)for happy women's day was shown. Mrs. Thirumagal, AP /ECE gave welcome address and invited the respected chief guest Dr. A. Jeevanandham,M.A.,M. Com., M.Ed.,M.Phil.,PGDCA.,MBA.,Ph.D., she shared valuable information on women under the title of "Empowered Women "and her experience .It was very useful to the students.

chief guest Dr. A. Jeevanandham delivering speech on "Empowered Women "

She says, Education is the key to women empowerment. If a girl is educated, she will have confidence. She will have employable skills. Employment will lead her to financial independence. Entrepreneurship will make her stronger and daring to take up new challenges.

As Malala Yousafzai, the Nobel Peace Prize winner says, "One child, one teacher, one book, and one pen can change the world." And nowhere is it truer as in the case of women. The educated women - will become leaders with the right mindset, making the right decisions at the right time. When women are put at the helm of affairs, conflict has an unnatural way of decreasing. As mothers, they care. They care about the future generations. They care about this earth.

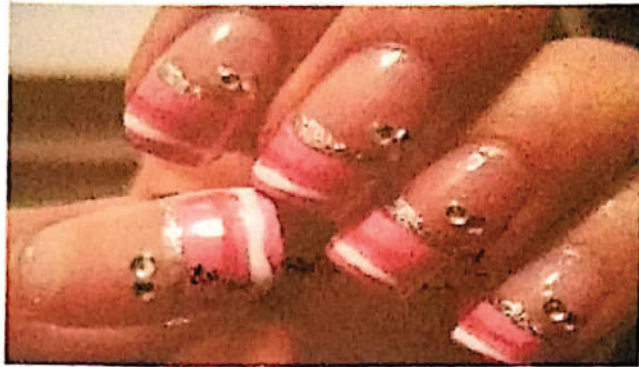

Then our student L. Mowli 2nd year ECE was identified and honoured for her deeds. Our student K. Jaishree 2nd year ECE, shared "self-defense tips for women in these modern days". It was very creative and wonderful. Everyone appreciates her act of bravery.

Competitions also conducted on 1.30 - 3.30pm,

- Mehendi.

- Nail Art.

- Cooking without flame.

- Rangoli.

The winners of these respective competitions were honored by our respected Chief guest.

Finally, the students were shown an AV on "sound of silence and girl effect".

Vote of thanks was given by the women's cell convener Mrs. P. Thirumagal AP/ECE. Thus the Women's day program ended successfully.

"A strong woman understands that the gifts such as logic, decisiveness, and strength are just as feminine as intuition and emotional connection. She values and uses all of her gifts."
